To whom it may concern:

Stockholm,

We have the honour and the pleasure of offering you a newly-produced Swedish film: "THE TENT - WHO OWNS THIS WORLD?," (35 mm or 16 mm, colour, 85 mins.)

It is a music film with a difference. It is based on the theatrical and cultural event of 1977 here in Sweden - The Tent Project. For five months that summer, some of Sweden's leading left-wing independent theatre companies and bands travelled the country with a four-masted circus tent, putting on a show called "We Are Legion!" The show portrayed in words and music the history of the Swedish working class from 1879 until the present.

Together with "We've Got Our Own Song" and "ABBA-The Movie", "THE TENT - WHO OWNS THIS WORLD?" is one of the few Swedish films built largely on filmed musical numbers. But the film is also a trip around Sweden, with the events and the lives of people in this crisis-ridden country interwoven with the music and the drama of the stage show.

The idea has been to take a critical look at Sweden after a hundred years of organised labour, and after forty-four years of Social Democratic government. Who has power over our jobs? Who owns this world?

"THE TENT - WHO OWNS THIS WORLD?" has been highly praised in the Swedish press, and we sincerely hope that the film will be of interest outside Sweden as well.

If you are interested, we can supply you with more material - records, cassettes, stills and the script. Get in touch with us at HAGAFILM AB, Braxengatan 4, S-133 00 Saltsjöbaden, Sweden. Our telephone numbers are: 08/717 30 18 or 08/20 30 59

Yours sincerely,
